WHAT WE LOVE ABOUT AUBURN

A hint of rustic elegance enhances the modern, urban style of the James Martin Vanities Auburn collection. This statement-making, open vanity features Poplar veneers over solid wood construction and a wire-brushed, weathered finish. In contrast: your choice of a bold, matte black or glossy white high-profile sink. This collection of freestanding vanities is available in two convenient sizes, with or without countertops.

- Integrated towel bar and display shelf offer functional and decorative storage.
- A high-profile sink offers a deep basin that helps contain splashes.
- Modern vanity makes a bold statement without requiring a large space.
- A matte black towel bar contrasts with the weathered wood base.
